

Fact Sheet

- Our motto is Art. Love. Nature. We do not dabble in political or potentially offensive images. All of our murals are a vision of art, love & nature.
- Potential Artists who could be included in this year's Artify installations are:
  - Mantra Rea* (France- Hyper realistic muralist celebrating nature & humanity in large scale.)
  - Dulk* (Spain- Artist & conservationist painting colorful scenes in a surreal animal kingdom.)
  - Sergio Guillen* (Costa Rica- Illustrator & muralist of San Jose's Hotel El Presidente.)
  - Aquino* (Costa Rica- Painter, sculptor & multimedia artist working to install Artify's first sculpture.)
  - Mateus Bailon* (Brazil- Muralist celebrating nature in fancifully crafted works of flora & fauna.)
  - Marco Mata* (Costa Rica- Graffer & muralist of varied styles.)
  - Perro Graff* (Colombia- Graff artist & founder of Graffitour Comuna 13, Medellin.)
  - The Mural Co* (USA- Graffers & muralists of varied styles for public & private commissions.)
- We support artists through private & public commissions. We always pay artists!
- Donations & commissions from private citizens and local business owners fund our project. If you would like to support Artify or an artist by installing an original piece of art in your home or business, please call us.
- Our fundraising goal for 2018 is $25,000, unchanged from the previous year.
- We also support education initiatives for local schools, and have helped introduce art education in the local primary school, serving 600 children.
- In 2017, Artify Jacó installed 3 mega murals, as well as two medium sized murals & continued smaller interventions in the #findyourwingscampaign. All of our works have been completed on time & within budget.

For more information about us or to see how you can get involved through volunteerism or a donation, please visit our website- www.artifyjaco.com